

Required Cast/Crew

Chris Deakin – Director, Acting

Andy Bush – Cinematographer, Assistant Director

Shooting Location

Room Setting, My House

Weather

Shooting done indoors so weather is not an issue. Creating our own lighting

Additional Information

The zombie bite marks needs to be done at the start for continuity purposes. Also, make up to make lead actor to look rough needs to be done before shooting can start! Keep an eye on the table props need to be watched for continuity!

Props and Equipment

Special effect wax, Liquid Latex, Blade, Fake Blood, Scar Liquid, Cotton Buds, Fake drugs (Rock Salt, Oregano, Baking Powder), Bio suit, Gloves, Boots, Duck Tape, Skins, Makeup, Wet look gel, Lighting, Camera, Tripod, Track Dolly, Lenses, ND Filters,

Shot List

1. Pull in Shot on Sofa, racking up a line!
2. Above shot, Close Up/Mid shot as he lifts his head back from sniffing the coke!
3. Mid Shot/over shoulder, starts looking down towards his arm injury, moving the suit to get a better look at it!
4. Close up shots of both the injury and reaction shots to the pain in his arm!
5. Uses duck tape to tape up the wound on his arm!
6. Close up shots of the coke on the table being cut and shots of the writing and graffiti around the bedroom!